

U.S. Joint Forces Command Joint Warfighting Center

Course Details

Course Title:	Joint Advanced Warrior Skills Trainer Course
Course Number:	001
Training Agency:	U.S. Joint Forces Military Skills Training Center San Antonio, TX
Course Learning Objectives:	Develop small-unit leadership skills and train personnel to provide individual and unit-level instruction in advanced land navigation, advanced rifle and pistol marksmanship, advanced personal and unit physical fitness, basic survival swimming, combat first aid, law of war, and Joint capability awareness.
Course Description/Summary	Trainer instruction is provided in a positive yet demanding Joint team environment to develop small unit leadership skills and master critical tactical warrior skills at advanced levels. Eighty percent of the training is conducted hands-on in the field emphasizing advanced competency in land navigation, marksmanship, physical fitness, and combat first aid. Subcourses include survival swimming, map reading, distance estimation, grenade throwing, law of war, leader development, human peak performance, and
Assessment Method:	Attainment of course objectives will be measured through both written tests and physical proficiency checks.
Target Audience:	Motivated and proactive leaders at the unit level.
Security Clearance Requirements:	NA
Course Prerequisites:	NA
Course Length:	25 days
Course Location:	Camp Bullis, San Antonio, TX 78257
Cost of Attending / Funding Process:	Service or unit funded
Additional Information:	Completing this course is prerequisite training for consideration to compete in NATO CIOR Military Skills Competitions
Your Contact information:	Name	LTC Robert Thompson, USJFMSTC OIC
	Phone	DSN 471-1547 / Comm (210) 221-1547
	E-Mail	robert.r.thompson@us.army.mil
	Web Address	www.uscior.army.mil